HARVARD AND PRINCETON MEET

First Big Game of Season at Cambridge Today-Both Teams in Fine Condition-Betting Favors Crimson, 10 to 9-Backfields Expected to Star.

Cambridge, Mass, Nov. 1.—Princeton and Harvard will measure strength, agility and football knowledge in an hour's struggle in the stadium tomorrow before 37,000 people. The contest will be the first of the big games of the year on the eastern gridtrons and the first visit of the Orange and Black to Harvard in 16 years. If the Crimson should win—and the betting to night was 10 to 2 in support of such a couple also rode to and from Provison should win—and the betting to-night was 10 to 9 in support of such a contingency—the victory will mark the first Harvard success over the Tigers in a quarter of a century. The two universities resumed football rela-tions last year and Princeton won on Century field by a second of $1.00. Osborne field by a score of 8 to 6.
Head Coach Cunnigham of the Tigers said tonight that the team is in a confident mood. "Every man is in playing condition, and the eleven will go on to the field physically fit. Of ourse we expect to win. "Should Be a Grand Game." Head Coach Haughton of Harvard naintained his usual reticence to-light. The mentor of the Crimson ootball team would say only: "Tomorrow will tell its own story. We know Princeton has a good team, but I think ours it the better. It should be a grand game." Trainer "Pooch" Donovan volunteer-ed the statement that the Crimson players are all in "fine form and fet-

A southerly rainstorm soaked the gridiron within the stadium today and onight. Indications were that the rain would stop before midnight, but greasy field was in prospect.
Despite the rain, the Harvard team day had its last practice before the ame. The backs and ends were out game. The backs and enus were in in the drizzle, running down under and catching punts for half an hour. The linemen meanwhile formed within ne baseball cage and were given in-

Big Crowd from Princeton. Princeton, N. J., Nov. 1.—Nearly two-thirds of the Princeton under-graduate body left today for Boston to ! liness the Barvard-Princeton football attle tomorrow afternoon. The foot-all squad, composed of 30 men, which

Princeton men are hopeful but far from confident concerning the outcome of the battle. It is the general belief among the Nassau supporters that if Princeton is to win it will be through the superfority of her attack rather than of her defense, basing their hopes on the speed of Captain Pendleton.
